

DRONES FOR GOOD AND COMMUNITIES: A CRITICAL REMOTE SENSING APPROACH

10th
April
2026

19:00-21:00
CEST

Introduction

Toward Santa Marta: the first International conference on transitioning away from fossil fuels

Massimo De Marchi

General Coordinator of the Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Programme on Climate Change and Diversity: Sustainable Territorial Development, CCD-STeDe - University of Padua

Laboratory GIScience and Drones 4 Good: a decade of multiple itinerant drones practices

Salvatore E. Pappalardo, Edoardo Crescini

Lab. Drones4Good Dep. ICEA, University of Padua

Commercial drones as a new media. Communication and negotiation of airspace for local claims

Gala Casagrande

Independent researcher in media, technology and society

Policing with the Drone: Towards an Aerial Geopolitics of Security

Francisco R. Klauser

Director of Institut de Géographie Université de Neuchâtel

Organizational Committee

Massimo De Marchi, Salvatore E. Pappalardo, Francesca Peroni, Daniele Codato, Edoardo Crescini, Francesco Facchinelli, Giuseppe Della Fera, Elena Secondo, Daniele Vezzelli, Zsófia Ghira, Abdullah Ahmadi, Andrea Santaterra, Patricio I. C. Reyes

Scientific Committee

Massimo De Marchi, Alberto Lanzavecchia, Carlos Larrea, Benewindé Jean-Bosco Zoungrana, Anna Lucia Bravo, Edoardo Crescini, Alberto Diantini, Maria Helena D. Rebelo, Francesco Facchinelli, Francesca Peroni, Lee-Ann S. Modley, Abdoul A. Sodore, Pawendkisgo Isidore Yanogo, Salvatore E. Pappalardo, Daniele Codato, Eduardo Noboa

The event is part of the International Night of Geography 2026

